

The Treasures of South Moravia

March 10, 2012

Lednice castle

Mikulov

Dietrichstein Tomb

Jewish quarter

Viticulture exposition

Welcome

All conference participants and their accompaniment are welcome to join a day bus trip on Saturday, March 10, 2012, following the conference at Faculty of Business and Economics.

Southern Moravia region represents the crossroads of Europe. In addition to historic sights and natural beauty, some protected by UNESCO, visitors are attracted by the cordiality and hospitality of its inhabitants, who are proud of living in Southern Moravia.

Come and enjoy the treasures of this region with us.

Program: Lednice Castle and its gardens
 lunch
 Mikulov
 Dietrichstein Tomb
 Jewish Quarter
 wine cellar with wine tasting

Departure: 8 am

Return: 5 pm

Price per person: 45 EUR

Number of participants is limited, therefore, reservations must be announced beforehand at this address: ece.trip@gmail.com

Further information will be provided in a reply.

For more information about visited sites, go to:

South Moravia: <http://www.jizni-morava.cz/?lang=2&tpl=60>

Castle in Lednice: <http://zamek-lednice.info/en/>

The town of Mikulov: <http://www.mikulov.cz/en/?languageId=1>

The Castles of Moravia on New York Times recently:

<http://travel.nytimes.com/2011/09/25/travel/in-the-czech-republic-moravia-and-its-castles.html>